

If a picture can show the simplicity, this surely shows it.

Take a plaque in a marine location... leave on site for over twenty years and the ravages of the environment will eventually deal to the surface. A tribute to brass really.... The perfect medium for external use.

When the surface needs some care, this restoration was possible by use of a bit of TUFF PREP™, elbow work and a final light coating of NYALIC®.

